Transition in action

Focused on caring for the earth & restoring damage to it

Be careful and considerate about your choices. Say some words of warning, even about the solutions you like.

Bravery

Transition in action

Focused on fair limitations & distributing surplus

You want to know more, interested in deepening knowledge. You prefer solutions including a chance to learn something new or get better understanding.

Fairness

Transition in action

Focused on fulfilling people's needs in a sustainable way

Value relationships between people. Talk about how solutions would foster community and close relationships.

Love

Transition in action

Embrace ideas that are different. Be curious about what effect a solution would have and talk about it. Ask questions of the others.

Curiosity

Transition in action

Don't be afraid of the less traditional solutions. Try to come up with the HOW of a solution to show that it would work. Celebrate creative ideas and solutions.

Creativity

Transition in action

Be committed to helping the team find solutions that everyone agrees on. Prioritize solutions that rely on teamwork and explain why that's good.

Kindness

Teamwork

Transition in action

Talk about WHY solutions will be good for society, or what you hope they will help with. Look towards a better future with action, not just optimism.

Hope

Transition in action

Consider many different sides before making a decision. You see the bigger picture, think long term and see the extended effect of the solutions on the community.

Perspective

Transition in action

Look at the challenge and wonder why. Humanize without judgment and give them another chance. Move on without resentment towards the new solution.

Forgiveness

Transition in action

You want to know more, intersted in deepening knowledge. You prefer solutions including a chance to learn something new or get better understanding.

Love of learning

Transition in action

Don't be afraid of the less traditional solutions. Be curious about which effects a solution would have and talk about it. Ask questions of the others.

Curiosity

Transition in action

Bring a little of yourself into the character. Be honest about what your own feelings are in the matter and be sincere and true to yourself as a person.

Honesty

Transition in action

Don't be afraid to try the hard solutions. Believe that you and others can achieve your goals.

Prudence

Transition in action

Strive for solutions that are fair for as many people as possible. Empathize with different groups and look for hidden injustices.

Love of learning

Transition in action

Prefer solutions that depend on people. Think about the different social interactions needed to implement the solutions.

Social intelligence

Transition in action

Know your limits and your worth. Talk about the limitations of your group and question the unknowns in the solutions.

Humility

Transition in action

Talk about the interconnectedness of the world and how a solution would enforce the connection between human and nature.

Spirituality

Transition in action

Talk about what solutions would be best for the people's welfare. Consider what possibilities let people show each other kindness.
